SECOND AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

The court GRANTS IN PART the Unopposed Motion to Amend Scheduling Order. (Doc. 31). The scheduling order is amended as set out below. This governs further proceedings in this action unless modified for good cause shown.

1. Discovery Limitations and Deadlines:

- |                                 |                                                                                  |
|---------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| a. Depositions:          | Maximum of 10 by each party. Each deposition is limited to a maximum of 7 hours. |
| Interrogatories:         | Maximum of 45 by any party directed to any other party.                          |
| Requests for Production: | Maximum of 60 by any party directed to any other party.                          |
| Requests for Admission:  | Maximum of 45 by any party directed to any other party.                          |

- b. Supplementation: Supplementation of disclosures and discovery under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e) is due within a reasonable period of time after discovery of such information, but all such supplementation shall be provided no later than 14 days before the close of discovery.
  - c. Deadline: All discovery must be commenced in time to be completed by July 8, 2024.
- 2. Discovery Motions: Before a party files a motion to compel, a motion to quash, or any other discovery-related motion, the party must seek leave of the court to file the motion. Counsel for the moving party must confer in person or by telephone with opposing counsel to attempt to resolve their disagreements regarding discovery requests. If the parties are unable to resolve their dispute in that manner, then the party filing the motion for leave of the court shall describe all efforts taken to resolve the disputed matter and shall certify in the motion that the parties conferred pursuant to this order and were unable to reach an agreement. If an attorney makes a good faith effort but is unable to contact opposing counsel, then the attorney shall describe in the motion the attorney's efforts to contact and coordinate with opposing counsel. Failure to include a statement of the parties' attempt to resolve the matter without the court's intervention may result in an automatic denial of the motion. The motion for leave of the court need only include the facts relevant to the dispute. Legal argument and/or legal citations are not necessary.

If the motion for leave of the court is opposed, opposing counsel may file a response within three days. If the non-moving party does not file a response, then the court will consider the motion unopposed.

If the court grants leave, the moving party must file the discovery motion within one day. The non-moving party must file a response to the discovery motion within seven days.
- 3. Dispositive Motions: All potentially dispositive motions and evidentiary submissions upon which a party will rely in support of the motion must be filed no later than September 16, 2024.

Briefs in support of dispositive motions must be filed within one business day of the filing of the dispositive motion and evidentiary submissions. All briefs filed in support of or opposition to dispositive motions must contain citations to the evidentiary record by CM/ECF document and page number. To the extent that a party responding to a dispositive motion relies on evidence that is not included in the moving party's evidentiary submission, the responding party must file that evidence on or before the day the opposition brief is due.

The parties must file and brief all dispositive motions consistent with Appendix II which is attached to the court's initial order.

The court recognizes that Appendix II addresses only motions for summary judgment. If the parties file a dispositive motion other than one for summary judgment, the parties must comply with Appendix II to the extent practicable.

4. Extensions: Parties requesting an extension of any deadline must file a motion at least one week before the deadline, and must show good cause for the extension. Good cause includes, at a minimum, a description of why the party or parties cannot meet the existing deadline.

Any motion that seeks an extension of the discovery deadline by more than thirty days must include: (1) a description of all discovery conducted up to the point of filing the motion for an extension and the dates said discovery was served and answered; (2) the depositions the parties have taken up to the point of filing the motion; and (3) a discovery plan setting the date on which each outstanding discovery issue will be resolved.

The court strongly disfavors successive motions for extensions of time.

5. Mediation: The parties shall complete mediation on or before December 18, 2024.
6. Joint Status Report: The parties shall file a joint status report on or before July 9, 2024.

The status report should state whether the parties object to mediation and include enough information to allow the court to understand the nature of the case, its current status, including any pending motions, and any current or anticipated problems in preparing the case for trial. Specifically, the court should be advised of the pertinent issues and the parties' positions as to those issues. The status report should not be used to argue the party's case, or to present all possible legal theories; instead, the report should apprise the court of the case and current issues affecting trial preparation, including the status of critical discovery. Although the parties must report on the status of critical discovery, they should not informally request an extension of time in the report; any motion for extension of time must be made formally following the instructions set out above.

If the parties desire a status conference, they must request one in the joint status report. Additional conferences, including a pretrial conference, will be scheduled as needed by separate order. Due dates for lists of trial witnesses, exhibits, and objections under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3) shall be established in a separate pretrial order.

7. Trial: The parties shall be ready for trial in February 2025, to be scheduled by separate order.
8. Oral Argument: If a party wants oral argument on motion, the party must clearly indicate that request in the motion. In the interest of exposing less experienced attorneys to oral argument, the court will, in addition to its other considerations, take into consideration whether an attorney with less than five years' experience will be arguing before the court. If the court grants the request for oral argument and one of the attorneys has less than five years' experience, the court will give the parties additional time for argument in order to provide an experienced attorney the opportunity to supplement the less experienced attorney's argument.

DONE and ORDERED this May 20, 2024.
